WHY TITLE A DOG?

Not just a brag, not just a stepping stone to a higher title, not just an adjunct to competitive scores, a title is a tribute to the dog that bears it, a way to honor the dog, an ultimate memorial. The title will remain in record and in memory for as long as anything in this world can remain. Few humans will do as well or better in that regard.

And though the dog doesn't know or care that his or her achievements have been noted, a title says many things in the world of humans, where such things count.

A title says your dog was intelligent and adaptable, and good-natured. It says that your dog loved you enough to do the things that please you however crazy they may have sometimes seemed.

And a title says that you loved your dog, that you loved to spend time with your dog because he or she was a good dog, that you believed in your dog enough to give him or her yet another chance when he or she failed, and that, in the end, your faith was justified.

A title proves that your dog inspired you to that special relationship enjoyed by so few; that in a world of disposable creatures, this dog with a title was greatly loved, and loved greatly in return.

And when your dog's dear short life is over, the title remains as a memorial of the finest kind, the best you can give to a deserving friend, volumes of pride in one small set of initials after the name.

A title earned is nothing less than love and respect, given and received, and permanently recorded.
